Proposal for translation services

To: Raising The Village Procurement Team

Re: Translation Services 2026 — English to Kiswahili

Dear Procurement Team,

I am writing to express my interest in providing English-to-Kiswahili translation and machine-translation quality assurance for Raising The Village's community training materials.

I am Tanzanian and a native Kiswahili speaker. I taught English online at Active Age Language Institution in Voronezh, Russia, from June 2022 to May 2024. I also chose to study Russian language and literature. This language background, together with my familiarity with Tanzanian usage, is relevant to making learning materials clear and natural for communities in Tanzania.

I would review each source carefully, keep important terms consistent, and check that the final Kiswahili preserves the meaning while remaining understandable to its intended readers. I can deliver editable Word files, track terminology questions, and incorporate consolidated feedback.

My proposed rates are US $0.08 per English source word for direct translation and US $0.06 per English source word for machine-translation quality assurance. The following pages give my approach and two new examples for your assessment.

Kind regards,

Edward Mathew

Clear rates, clear handover.

Rates apply to the English source-word count determined in Microsoft Word or an equivalent tool, with punctuation excluded, as set out in RTV's terms.

Service	Per English source word
Direct translation English to Kiswahili, including self-review and one round of consolidated feedback.	US $0.08
Machine-translation quality assurance Review against the English source and correct to publication-ready Kiswahili, including one round of consolidated feedback.	US $0.06

Quality assurance process

1. Agree the intended audience, source files, terminology and work-order scope with RTV.
2. Translate or review against the English source, adapting literal wording where it would be unclear in Tanzanian Kiswahili.
3. Check consistency, grammar, names, numbers, completeness and layout; read the finished text for natural flow.
4. Deliver editable Word documents, note unresolved terminology questions in a tracker where requested, and incorporate consolidated feedback.

Schedule and confidentiality

I can plan around the TOR's four-week translation and two-week quality-assurance windows, with volume and milestones agreed in each accepted work order. RTV materials would be used only for the assignment and treated as confidential.

This is a call-down contract: work is undertaken only after RTV issues a work order and the consultant accepts it. RTV does not guarantee a minimum volume.

Community language in practice.

These are original practice examples prepared for this application. They are not previous client commissions. Edward must review the Kiswahili before they are used in a final bid.

Example 01 • Community savings records

ENGLISH SOURCE

A savings group should record every contribution on the day it is received. At the end of each meeting, members should check the total together and agree on any corrections before closing the record.

DRAFT KISWAHILI

Kikundi cha akiba kinapaswa kurekodi kila mchango siku unapopokelewa. Mwishoni mwa kila mkutano, wanachama wanapaswa kukagua jumla kwa pamoja na kukubaliana kuhusu marekebisho yoyote kabla ya kufunga kumbukumbu.

Example 02 • Farming and market decisions

ENGLISH SOURCE

Before choosing a crop to sell, farmers should compare expected demand, transport costs and the prices offered by different buyers. A higher selling price does not always mean a higher profit.

DRAFT KISWAHILI

Kabla ya kuchagua zao la kuuza, wakulima wanapaswa kulinganisha mahitaji yanayotarajiwa, gharama za usafirishaji na bei zinazotolewa na wanunuzi mbalimbali. Bei ya juu ya kuuza haimaanishi kila mara faida kubwa zaidi.

Evidence still needed

RTV lists proof of professional English-to-Kiswahili translation experience as mandatory and asks for at least two similar references or samples. These new examples show proposed language work; they do not establish previous professional translation experience. Relevant previous assignments or references can be added if available.
